Hello. It's Bilyung.

Santa Kou now been completed.

It was really hard to draw this manhwa,
but it was really fun,too.

Mmm...
I thought that I would write a lot in the afterword, but now that I'm actually writing it, I can't think of anything...

Ah, yes. Let's talk about the manhwa first!

I was in the challenge league and I drew this manhwa for more than a year.

In the beginning, I wanted to draw adorable kids becoming happy.

At the start, only the duo of Bell and Santa were in the story.

I wanted to add various different things.

Other Santas,

A story about an old witch...

And a little story about love.

Also, I wanted to draw the post of Grandpa Santa and the other kid's pants.

I think there were lots things that I could have done better, and that the story lacked a lot of things.

Thank you very much for reading Santa, even while it's not perfect.

Thank you!
